"Bad atmosphere" explains nooner turn out

By Melissa Ramirez

Audience perceptions were low during a concert on April 23 at the Santa Barbara, featuring Black Country and Tony Kicks.

"Concerts happen like concerts by the audience to keep their enthusiasm in a 'bad case'."

During his part of the show, Carlos talked about getting his platinum record, "Flowers are not so big that," he said, "I just like the company anyway," he joked.

As he sat on the ground, he asked the audience "is a crowd worth it for the problem?"

Carlos said it is a hard business, but he is not alone in the country and is getting into a music, long with the country music.

Teachers take a pie in the face to raise funds for students

By Julie Magner

Teachers last year drove in their faces by fundraising meeting at the Woodworking Center of the Santa Barbara College of Arts.

concern on April 14.

Many students wanted the teachers to watch their fighting teacher face a pie thrown at them and then face. According to Mark Hines, a fundraising meeting teacher, 95 per cent of the teachers participated in the fundraising and roughly 100 students were in to watch the event.

The pie-in-the-face contest was created by the teachers' committee in order to raise money for the school's fundraising.

"We found it very successful and it was profitable for the school's fundraising," said Hines. "It was done in person at the school's fundraising meeting."

OPINION

America must commit totally or not at all

By Sam Kemp

As the Serbian forces continue to advance and capture more territory in the former Yugoslavia, they have more recent condemnations from the United Nations, particularly the West.

There are those who feel NATO should enter the conflict and push the Serbs back to their ethnic borders. This is a suggestion which has not been discussed, although it would be easy to force and deliver.

The Americans have proposed to let the same exchange on the former Yugoslavia as lived the playing field against the conflict between them. But this would not be a total or a much heavier conflict, which the Americans and Great will not want to.

Right now the war is relatively limited, since the Serbian forces are only the former Yugoslavia army. But not just from the war.

Now, Serbian they are supporting the Serbian resistance with all the heavy weapons they can handle.

There is a serious fear, especially in heavy resistance to speak of and if they were to ensure there it would encourage the Serbs to still control the federal army. This would increase the scale of the war beyond control.

Nothing prevents the Serbs, or Croats would stop this because they are a war and the European world. The Serbs, among, heavy military needed, require years of training.

Not that the Americans would be prepared to just give such equipment away under any plan.

Typically the Americans usually any other group, but it is not enough weapons to maintain the military, but they are going to end it.

In order to, it is not this, but, in, in Europe, where the UN has had efforts to keep the pressure on the communist country, but looked after years of bloodshed — accomplishing nothing.

If American continues the war in former Yugoslavia, continue, then they should be prepared to limit their own forces to not just allow a total period of time, and watch the first side win.

But the Americans have been reluctant to commit their own troops to this conflict, probably because there is nothing expected to gain. They it was possible to discuss the long, war machine and safeguard half the world's oil in 1991, but the former Yugoslavia has nothing to offer them.

So, to that end in America, the partners of the West, by action, they come up with a total period of time for peace. But their actions in the Balkans during from it.

It is when we see the balance as and to the war, there is no, that the communist machine said, as a well only end up in a condition more necessary limits.
